

Summary: : Examination of the Judicial Cases against RA Police

Since March 01 of 2020, “The Protection of Rights without Borders” NGO has been implementing the Project on “Improvement of Judicial Reforms: Improvement of Public Administration Quality: Is Armenia Creating a New Reality” with the financial assistance of the National Democratic Endowment (NED).

In the scope of the Project, an examination of the cases adopted into proceeding against the Republic of Armenia Police, have been conducted, one of the aims of which is to raise the systematic problems related to administration in regard to a number of legal issues closely related to authorities of the RA Police.

Particularly, 80 decisions<sup>1</sup> out of 90 decisions registered in the Court in 2019 and 2020 and adopted until June 30 of 2020, as well as 28 discontinuation decisions out of 56 cases have been respectively analysed.

Before the finalization of the examination outcomes, meetings and discussions have been organized with the representatives of different departments of the RA Police.

During the mentioned discussions, the Organization presented the main outcomes by given sectors and problems, in regard to which the RA Police presented its approach.

The final outcomes of the examination, including also the comments and recommendations presented by the RA Police, are summarized in the current Report. The Report covers both overall numerical statistics of the judicial cases and problems rising from legal and administrative issues and other substantive issues and other problems and content related issues.

---

<sup>1</sup> The differences between the number of the cases taken from “Datalex” informative system and actually examined cases can be conditioned by the big number of cases, as well as by the fact that the latter had been examined by the Organization during 2019-2020.